

Announcements

TO ALL MEMBERS OF THE PBPC USHERING TEAM: If you have not received my Sunday, 11/23, e-mail message requesting your answers regarding ushering in the new year, please let me know. Your prompt responses will allow me to prepare a timely schedule for Quarter One in 2015. Thanks from Betsy Martin

Are you interested in helping with toddlers and infants on Sunday mornings? We're looking for a special someone to provide childcare during our morning services. Generally, it is weekly from 9:50 to 11:20am except on special event Sundays when it would start one hour earlier, at 8:50am. This is a paid position (and will require a standard background check with fingerprinting), and we are hoping to find just the right person to care for our little ones during service. If you are interested, please contact Meri or Lisa in the church office.

Betty Durst writes...The family and I are so grateful for the love and support everyone gave us when Kurt, our beloved husband, father, and grandfather passed on to be with our heavenly father. Your many expressions of concern, prayers, cards, and calls have been deeply appreciated. Thank you Pastor Alan, the staff, and friends for the loving memories we have at this time. We are truly blessed to have such a loving Christian family at PB Presbyterian Church.

George & Claudia Aitcheson are so appreciative of the love they have felt from their Church Family remembering them with cards, calls and prayers. George says it is a tough journey God has them on but they definitely feel the Lord's presence and strength with each step, and he knows that comes from so many people lifting them in Prayer. Thank You!

Judy Whiles writes: Thank you so much for all of your cards and prayers!

Year-End Office Announcements

Christmas Announcements

Today, Dec. 14th, is the last day that people who wish to participate in our annual Christmas Letter can make their donations in the office after service. We gather donations annually to give to charities during the Christmas season. This year, donations will be given to Military Outreach Ministry. When you sign up, be sure to list your name exactly as you want it to appear in the letter.

Planning Ahead

Friendship Club will meet on Monday, December 29 - please note change of date. The Silver Bells will help us "ring out the old, ring in the new". Lunch will be provided, so just bring yourself and, if possible, a donation for CCSA. All ladies are welcome!

Lunch Bunch, December 21st, following morning worship service— everyone join together for lunch and fellowship at 11:15am at Café Athena Restaurant, across Garnet Street.

Announcements

It's that time of year again!! We will be displaying our sock tree in the narthex. Please bring your sock donation and add it to our tree. We would love to see it overflowing with white crew socks. CCSA is in great need especially during the colder winter months. Thanks for your support, Board of Deacons.

The end of 2014 is fast approaching and with it comes the need to put an end to our tax year. There are many charitable organizations that yield not only the opportunity to benefit a favorite charity but also to gain an income tax deduction. Giving to the Pacific Beach Presbyterian Church's Endowment Fund is one of those opportunities. Last fiscal year, the Endowment Fund provided $24,000 towards the functions of the church. Consider giving a year-end gift to both the church and yourself.

Church boxes of pledge envelopes are now in the Narthex on Sundays for pick-up. Boxes are alphabetically listed. If you would like a box and don't find yours, please leave your name in the office, I'll be glad to get you one. By picking up your box, you are saving the church postage fees. Those with Vanco accounts have offering numbers, but may not have boxes. Clio McEven
