Are you connected to us online? The church has a Facebook page and a sermon blog, where you can find regular updates on upcoming events and weekly posts of the text versions of Pastor Alan's sermon. Links to both are available on our webpage: www.pbpres.org.

Just a reminder: If you think you've recently lost something here on the PBPC campus, come stop by the church office to check our lost and found!

Do you have a few hours a week free that you'd like to spend helping the church? Our church office is in need of volunteers! Office volunteers help our staff by manning the front desk, answering incoming phone calls and assisting with mail, all while enjoying a fun and social environment. Morning volunteers have a three hour shift (9am—noon) and afternoon volunteers have a two hour shift (1pm—3pm). If you'd like to help, contact our office manager, Meri Murch, by phone (858-273-9312 ext. 117) or email (Meri@pbpres.org).

Thomas Lengyel writes to us: Hi everyone! I wanted to write quickly to say hi, and let you know that Maggie and I arrived safely in North Carolina. We passed through 13 states, with our dog Dusty lounging in the back seat while towing Maggie's car behind my truck. We drove 3,996 miles over the course of 11 days. It was quite a trip. Maggie began her job immediately, working in fundraising and development for a local homeless shelter/ non-profit, and I was just hired as the Associate Pastor for Durham Memorial Baptist Church. I will be overseeing education and discipleship for children, youth and adults. Something that feels strangely familiar. Thanks for all of your support over the years! God blessed me tremendously while I was with you, and I will always remember my wonderful years at PB Pres.

Your friend, Thomas Lengyel

USHERING AT PBPC

Ushers are those people with smiling faces and church programs in their hands who greet people as they arrive at church on Sunday mornings. They also pass the collection plate and/or distribute carnations to visitors. They usually only need to do this for one Sunday every three months! To learn more about serving as an usher, please contact Betsy Martin at 858-273-6882 or betz@san.rr.com.

It is our tradition here at PB Presbyterian to celebrate communion on the first Sunday of every month. We now offer gluten-free bread in addition to traditional bread.
