Ken Bailey Video Class—July 13

Dr. Bailey continues his discussion of the fourth essay found in Paul's first letter to the Corinthians, chapters 11 and 12, where he turns to the subjects of spiritual gifts and the church body. All of this is leading up to the well-known chapter on love. Spiritual gifts are special abilities to do things and are gifts of the Spirit of God that come by way of faith and baptism, given for the common good of the community. The body, church or human, is one entity but has many members. God has given you gifts for the benefit of the body, whether the church body or the community. A one-hour session will be held on Monday the 13th at 2:00pm in Founders' Hall. Each session begins with a 30-minute DVD presentation followed by a discussion of Dr. Bailey's insights. Please join us.

Please Note: There will be a Memorial Service for Carol Loh on Saturday, July 18th, at 2:00pm in our sanctuary. The family invites you to a reception in Calvin Hall (across the alley) following the service.

Lunch Bunch, Next Sunday, July 19th, following morning worship service— everyone join together for lunch and fellowship at 11:15am at Café Athena Restaurant, across Garnet Street.
