

Announcements

Pledge Envelopes: Boxes of pledge envelopes, for anyone who made a pledge or normally donates to our church, are available in the church office (on a table, in alphabetical order). If you want them and do not find them, please leave your name in the office and they'll be available to pick up the following Sunday. Of course, those of you using the online giving process no longer need weekly envelopes. We thank you for picking up your envelopes – it saves the church the $3.50 postage it costs to mail them.

Are there any women out there looking for a night time small group? I would like to start one sometime in the New Year on a Monday or Tuesday night. We would meet weekly to study the Word, pray, and encourage one another. Details loose, open to ideas and ways you want to give input or help out creating this. We will either meet at church or someone's home. Call or email me if you are interested or have questions, (619-884-3410 or chrissiet@cox.net). Blessings! Chrissie Teeling

Jane Kay wants to express heartfelt thanks to everyone for all the prayers and cards she has received in recent months. She has truly appreciated the outpouring of concern for her health issues. And she asks that we keep our prayers coming as she is not yet "out of the woods". Many, many thanks - Love, Jane.

Heidi Marosz, Jean Stone's daughter, died quietly at home at sunset on Sunday, January 1st. Her husband, Tom, hosted a gathering of family and close friends at their home on Saturday, January 7th to celebrate her life. Jean's heartfelt thanks to all who included Heidi in their prayers during this difficult time.

Last Sunday's Attendance: 105
Last Week's Giving: $11,549.41

It is our tradition here at PB Presbyterian to celebrate communion on the first Sunday of every month. We now offer gluten-free bread in addition to traditional bread.

Jesus and His Vision of Mission - January 10th

A new series begins this month as Dr. Kenneth Bailey discusses the prophecies of Isaiah about the restoration of Israel from their exile. The people had very nationalistic feelings and were eager to get back to their homeland. But Isaiah had a vision beyond the political, social, economic, and spiritual needs of his own community. He captures a vision that God has created all and thereby wants to redeem all. Isaiah describes a vision of a Savior, God's Servant. Dr. Bailey cites eight texts found in the last half of Isaiah, starting with some attributes of God's Servant which are fulfilled in Jesus. The one-hour session will be held on Tuesday the 10th at 12:00 noon in Founders' Hall. All are welcome.

Lunch Bunch, NEXT SUNDAY, January 15, following morning worship service— everyone join together for lunch and fellowship at 11:15am at Café Athena Restaurant, across Garnet Street.
