Transportation providers are reminded to contact your designated passenger and confirm the pick-up time. We continually seek to expand this service and appreciate all those willing to join the Transportation Team by picking up someone no longer able to drive. *Remember-Please make sure your auto insurance is current if driving on the church's behalf. Ken Bailey Video Series—Tuesday, June 12th

This month Dr. Bailey discusses the parable of "The Rich Fool," found in the 12th chapter of Luke. In this parable, one brother asks Jesus to tell his older brother to divide the family inheritance with him. He is asking for justice in the division of the family property. Jesus, while not indifferent to justice, refuses to be the judge over this request. Rather, He turns the subject to covetousness. The man is called upon to realize that all the property that we currently own, even our very soul, belongs to God and we are but caretakers of it. Not only are our goods on loan, but our very soul is on loan and we are responsible as stewards before God to care for both. Jesus closes by saying that a person who lays up treasures for himself is not enriching himself toward God. This 30-minute DVD, followed by discussion, will be held on Tuesday the 12th at 12:00 noon in Founders' Hall. Come and enjoy this look at Jesus' parable from a Middle Eastern perspective.

The Outreach & Mission Team is asking for help with the Annual Pacific BeachFest on October 6, 2018. This family-friendly event is a great way to reach our community and let them know we're here!

We need the following volunteers:

- Coordinator to get the scheduled event organized and running.
- a truck/van and driver to transport equipment from PBPC to the beach.
- someone to setup and tear down the booth at the beach.
- Several people to run the games and spinning wheel, and pass out free bottles of water. Different shifts are available.
- someone to transport volunteers from our church parking lot to and from the beach.
- someone to shop for cases of bottled water and bags of candy from Costco (you will be reimbursed for the cost).

Please contact Rubyanna Staunton to sign up. Thank you and God Bless.
