Announcements

Are you an outgoing person who loves our church? Do you have some free time each week and want to see more of your church friends and family? Consider volunteering in the church office!

Office volunteers act as our front desk receptionist: greeting visitors, answering the phone, and sorting mail each day. Shifts are available throughout the week, and are only 2 or 3 hours long! If you'd like to join our office team, contact our Office Manager, Lisa Schnabel, by phone (858-273-9312) or email (Lisa@pbpres.org). We'd love to have you!

Is mending one of your talents? The preschool is looking for someone who could mend the elastics that break on the corners of the cot sheets. We have taken them to the tailor and they do a great job, but we know it is just a few stitches to reattach them. If this is your gift, please call Amy at 858-273-1320. Thank you!

Are you connected to us online? We have a Facebook page (<https://www.facebook.com/PBPres/>) where you can find weekly updates on upcoming events and a sneak peek at the scripture and sermon for each Sunday morning worship service! Make sure to like us on Facebook to keep up to date!

Ken Bailey Video Series—March 12th

This month Dr. Bailey concludes his study of Jesus' parables with "The Farmer and His Servant" and "The Widow and the Judge." In the first parable, the servant who has been working in the field is expected to serve the noon meal to his master before serving himself. We are to serve our Master out of our loyalty and love for Him and not for a reward that we hope to get at the end of the day. In the second parable, a widow persists with the judge until her request is answered. Similarly, our persistence in prayer is only appropriate up to the point where God answers, whether we like the answer or not. A 30-minute DVD, followed by discussion, will be held on Tuesday the 12th at noon in Founders' Hall. Come and enjoy this look at Jesus' parables from a Middle Eastern perspective.
